But persons of the type we have now to consider refuse to be classified according to negative considerations; their type is positive, incissive, aggressive, and they are to be valued for what they have done and not for what they left undone. Their virtues are not of the squeamish, fastidious type, but of the heroic mould which is not satisfied unless it leaves decisive traces of its work

This is the principle on which we shall base the few words which we have to say about the subject of this

Mrs. Norris was born Miss Belsoover, in Pittsburgh, Pennslyvania. In that city she contracted her first marriage with a gentleman named Cox, of that city. By this marriage she gave birth to a daughter now Mrs. F. Evans, who attended her funeral last Monday. It was as his widow that she became a citizen of Cumberland Iron Works, in this State. Here she became acquainted with Mr. Norris, who became her second husband and shortly renoved with her to Dover, the county seat of Stewart county.

Of the events of this most unhappy marriage and its tragical termination we propose to say nothing; her action in it has already been the subject of an earthly tribunal which has acquited her of criminal intent, and it has now been called up to a court more august still, before whose verdicts all human judgment is si-

Trade continues fair for this season of the year, and to a slight extent is already feeling he beneficial effects of the early sales o Wheat. The sales of Wheat were large last week and the week before, mostly at $1.25 but since the price declined to $1 10 to 1 15 it is more difficult to buy. An active demand ontinues for Bacon, which has slightly advanced lately in the controlling markets.

Whitewater Wagons.

These celebrated Wagons are kept for sale by Fox & Smith, who are now selling them so cheap that any man can afford to buy a new Wagon. They are followed as the mother of the late lamented Wagon.

RILEY—At Hadensville, Ky., on the 18th inst., from the effects of measles, Joseph Riley, and about 37 years.

Jo was agood, kind-hearted man. He was a child of affliction all of his life, having been born lame. We hope he has gone to a better land, where affliction and sorrow are now selling them so cheap that any man can afford to buy a new Wagon. They are followed as the mother of the late lamented with League regulations, just received by Owen May 19-2m.

All Sorts

Of Frames at McCormac's, very cheap. Frames of irregular sizes made to order with neatness and dispatch. Will put up orders as cheap as any eastern manufactures.

Sale on the premises at 10 o'clock A promptly. Residence will be sold first.
